Activities

1. The Fillies say welcome and the sophomores register for the new school year. 2. The hassles of registration-more and more forms to fill out. 3. Mr. John Epler explains the new registration system to a couple of confused students. 4. The Grand National Karate Championship is held in the WM gym in October. 5. Warm autumn weather makes it possible for girls' PE classes to have a swimming unit. 6. The NJROTC drill team marches in the State Fair Parade in September. &. The Seachanters, a Navy choral group, is the main attraction of an assembly in the fall. 8. During Lettermen initiations, Farrell Fenner and Eddie Martinez seem to think that Mike Otero would look better if his head is covered.

Fall is 'jam-packed' with activities

Frustration! Confusion! This was the initial reaction of many juniors and seniors to the new "Barn" registration for upper-classmen.

But when it was over, the students enjoyed the advantage of being able to choose their own classes, teachers, and periods.

Once the hassles of registration were over, Mustangs settled down for the new school year and many got involved in activities around West Mesa.

All three football teams did exceptionally well this fall. The Varsity took 2nd in the district; the Colts had a good 6-4 season; the Freshmen team was first in the city.

There were many assemblies—pep, Homecoming, and the Sea Chanters to mention a few. West Mesa was well-represented in the State Fair Parade with six units participating.

With all this activity, winter was too-soon upon the school.

Football is the fall's main activity

1. A week of heavy rains in October leaves massive puddles covering most of the patio. 2. An invader from outer space? No, only Mr. John Barefoot, a contestant in the pie-throwing contest during the 'Beat Valley' pep assembly. 3. The WM and Valley cheerleaders pose for the photographer. 4. And then they 'unpose.' 5. Mike Gurule catches a Scott Grady pass for the first touchdown of the year. 6. The Mustangs, led by Scott Grady and Dan Muerer, enter the field between lines of cheerleaders and Fillies. 7. The WM marching band performs a 'Salute to the U.S. Armed Services' at the Valley game. 8. Mr. Dan Knight meets some of the concerned parents at the open house held in October.

Mustang Queen Diane Gurule

1. First Princess Liz Martinez is caped and crowned by Marian Hardy and Ruth Tamura. 2. Jeanell Clark and Bridget Lundy cape and crown second Princess Roseanne Andrade. 3. Receiving their roses are Ladies Gloria Romero, Lorraine Martinez and Polly Furr. 4. Marcy Morse is the First Lady of the Mustang Court. 5. Last minute touches--Lady Laura Bessom fixes one of Fran Barela's curls. 6. Awaiting the assembly--Ladies Sylvia Chavez, Pam Perea and Pat Pacheco find time to chat. 7. Joy and surprise are Diane Gurule's reactions at the announcement of Mustang Day Queen. 8. Diane Gurule is crowned by 1971 Mustang Queen Yolanda Martinez and Patty Chavez.

Diane reigns atop the 'Stairway to Heaven'

"There's a lady who's sure
All that glitters is gold
And she's buying a stairway to heaven ...
And heaven is in your mind ..."

This was the theme of Mustang Day, October 6, 1972. Diane Gurule was chosen by the student body to reign over WM's own bit of heaven.

The assembly was the culmination of Mustang Week when the students wore the school colors. The Drama Department won the sign contest sponsored by the Varsity Cheerleaders.

The Homecoming game was Friday night. At half time, instead of being driven in a car, Queen Diane and her princesses were taken around Milne Stadium in a pony-drawn carriage escorted by the NJROTC Drill team. Meanwhile, the WM and Eldorado marching bands and Pommerettes performed on the field. The Mustangs tied the Eagles 12-12.

The festivities came to an end with a dance Saturday night.

1. Members of the 1972 Mustang Court are Sylvia Chavez, Pam Perea, Laura Bessom, Fran Barela, Polly Furr, Lorraine Martinez, Marcy Morse, Liz Martinez, Diane Gurule, Roseanne Andrade, Gloria Romero and Pat Pacheco. 2. The Homecoming Court's escorts are Bob Davidson, Benny Ochoa, Herry Polotoglov, Anthony Aragon, Darrell Creel, Barney Roybal, Sammy Anaya, Danny Capello, Clarence Montoya, Frank Ortega, Franz Sjoberg, Eddie Berry and Freddie Chavez. 3. Under the 'Good Luck Mustangs' horseshoe, Liz Martinez, Diane Gurule and Roseanne Andrade await half-time activities at the Homecoming game. 4. Queen Diane and her princesses are taken around Milne Stadium in a pony cart driven by Benny Ochoa. The Mustangs tied Eldorado 12-12. 5. Enjoying the Homecoming dance are Queen Diane Gurule and Princess Roseanne Andrade. 6. Queen Diane Gurule accepts a gift from Linda Marquez on behalf of the B-Team cheerleaders. 7. Princess Liz Martinez and her date dance to the music of Cottonmouth.

There's a whirlwind of winter activities

A wonderful, white winter was upon West Mesa and students were swept into a whirlwind of activities.

The Iron Man 5 made for many exciting basketball games. There were several well-attended wrestling assemblies.

The Drama Department staged "Summertree" and several short plays.

Christmas came with tree and candy cane sales. There were holiday banquets and assemblies.

The Speech Team traveled to several tournaments and brought home quite a few trophies.

The whirlwind of activities never died down, and soon spring came about.

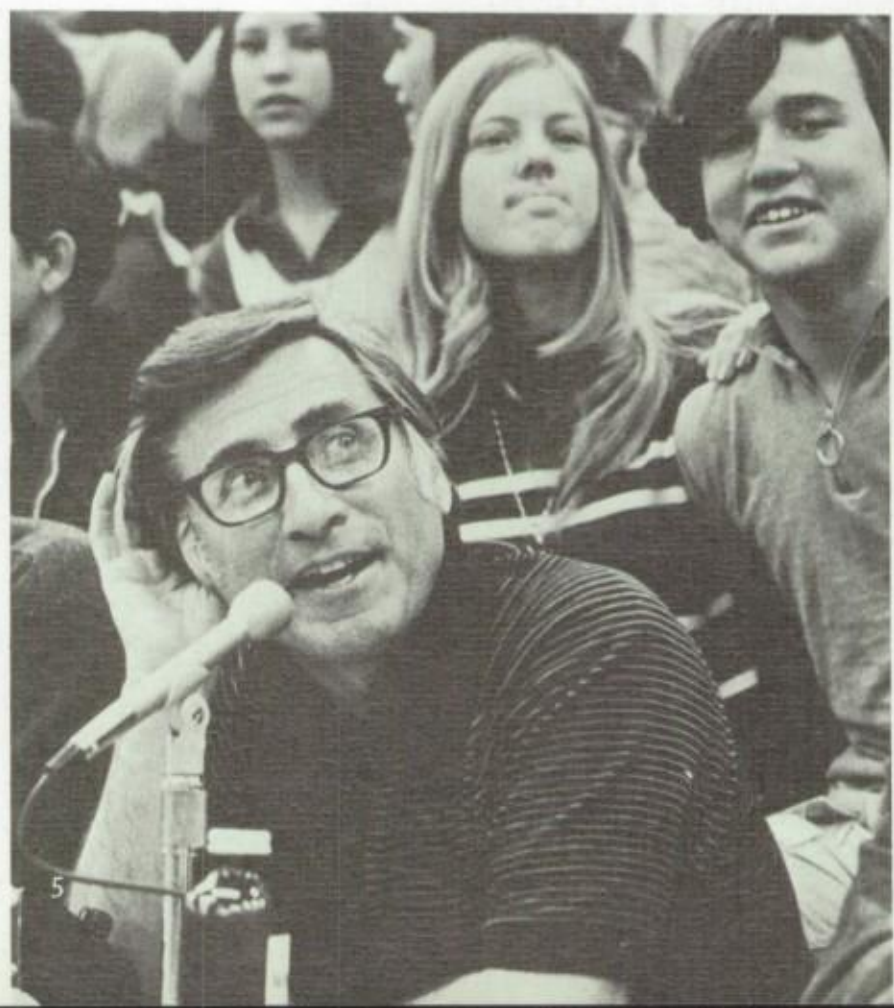

1. A January snow brings time for building snowmen . . . 2 . . . and snowball fights. 3. The Home Ec department holds a Christmas party for the faculty. 4. Two cadets practice for the ROTC banquet. 5. The annual Christmas tree makes a good place for friends to gather. 6. Kookie Alderete, like many juniors, receives her class ring. 7. The Concert Choir practices for a Christmas program.

The WM bench watches the AHS game as Bridget Lundy leads cheers for the Mustangs. 2. A WM wrestler pins his man at the WM-Valley wrestling assembly. 3. Robert Blue and an AHS player watch the ball sink. 4. Bob White takes a jump shot. 5. Mr. Bob Smith broadcasts one of the season's games. 6. Many Parents watched the drama department's production of Summertree. 7. The Speech team won many trophies. Shown here with some of their trophies are Debbie Werth, Lawrence Bernabo, Joan Ploakus, Jasen Kent, and Laura Clarkoon. 8. The cast of Summertree is on stage. 9. Here is an enthusiastic crowd of juniors and seniors at a pep assembly.

Up with people assembly great; CBS Television special taped

Peace, Unity, and Love among all people-that is their philosophy.

Music and choreography is their means of communication

Up with People is their name.

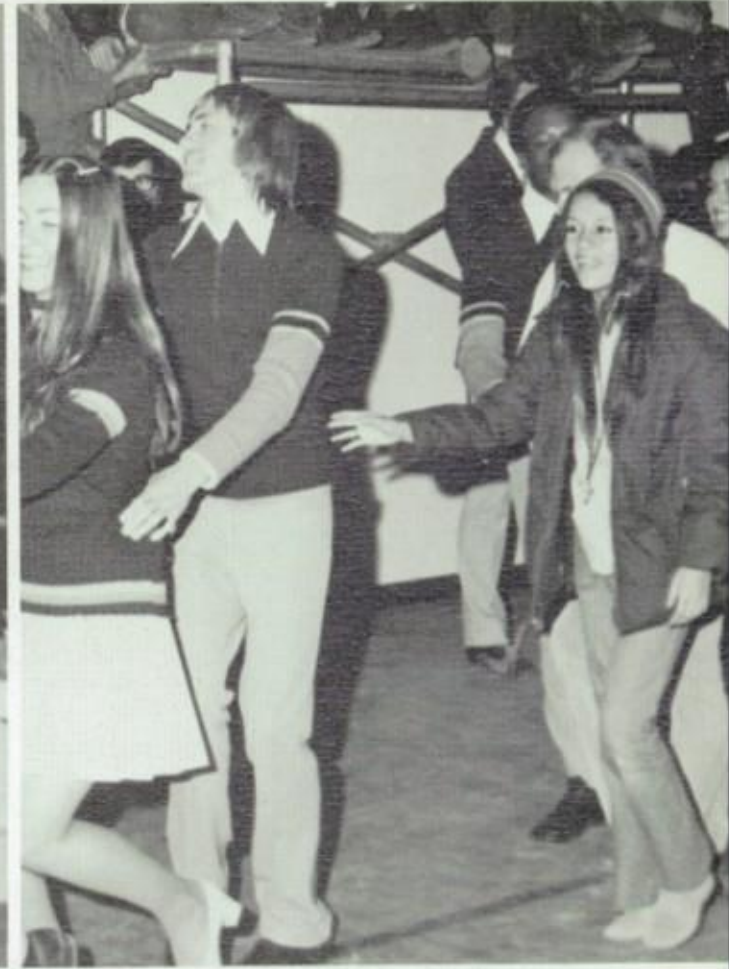

And they were at West Mesa in December. The group did two shows, both of which were taped for a CBS television special which was aired in the spring.

Audience participation was emphasized, and everyone clapped, sang and generally had a good time.

Some members of the cast stayed with families of WM students for the week that they were in Albuquerque.

Spring also means the end of basketball.

1. Julie Zerbe watches intently as Danny Sanchez gets his senior key.
2. Waiting for a buyer for some goodies are Jeanell Clark and Stacy Stearn.
3. Looks like a sad bunch! Joe Gutierrez, Freddie Chavez and Robert Whitaker are going to take a little break.
4. Practicing her extemp speech for the up-coming Speech Tournament is Julie Chernaieff.
5. Members of NHS serving an enchilada dinner are Mary Ann Sackett, Marcy Morse, Mike Garcia, and Rose Griego.
6. Cheerleaders are performing for one of the last basketball games of the season.
7. Second period Drama II class produces one act plays for other classes.

The ground hog came up from his hole on the mesa, saw his shadow, and started the spring season at school with dozens of activities.

For instance, the NHS sponsored an Enchilada Dinner for their scholarship fund. Many people got the thrill of their lives February 14, when student council members delivered messages and songs of love to lucky Romers and Juliets.

Up above, hot air balloons from all over the world were seen drifting over the city.

In early March, the basketball and wrestling seasons ended, but it was only the beginning of the baseball, golf and tennis seasons.

Juniors peddled their way through chocolate candy and paper flowers to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Seniors prepared for the big night of graduation ordering announcements and being measured for caps and gowns.

The last events of the year were the Awards Assembly and Graduation.

Guess who?!

1. Fourth period band members take a break between numbers during a sophomore-freshman assembly. 2. Student council member Kate Battuello delivers a valentine message to Gerald Armijo as part of that days celebration. 3. Students meet and talk with a Dutch balloonist that landed near the school. 4. As part of their unit on stone age man, Mrs. Evelyn Garriss' archeology classes make tools of rock. 5. At one of the afternoon assemblies, Lawrance Bernabo promotes the 'Win a Free Yearbook' contest. 6. All seniors, including Laurie Dickenson and Patti O'Brien, are being measured for their caps and gowns early in the spring. 7. In wig and top hat, Eddie Martinez reads the introduction to a play presented in the auditorium. 8. This balloon seemed to like the wide open mesa in front of the school so it landed there. Debbie Detz and Doug Utegg have spotted another one circling above them. 9. This is part of the enthusiastic crowd that attended the WM-AHS basketball game. 10. Running to meet a quick falling balloon and its pilot are several unidentified students.

Varsity gridgers finish season with 2nd best Mustang record

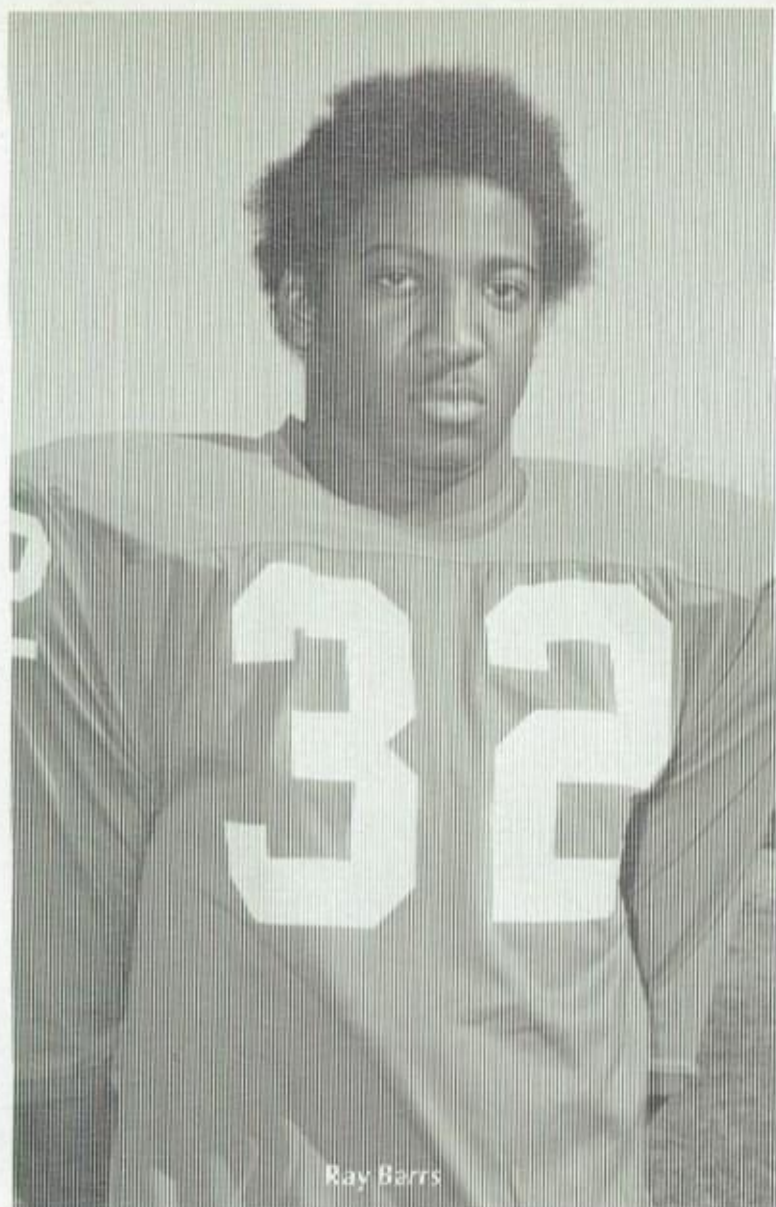

Coach Jimmy Juarez regarded the 72-73 season as a rebuilding year for the Mustang football team. The Mustangs "rebuilt" themselves to an overall record of 7-2-1.

As the season progressed, there was no doubt that the Highland-West Mesa game would decide the district champ. With Mike Otero taking Scott Grady's place, the varsity played one of their best games. But the Hornets won 12-8.

It was Highland and West Mesa that dominated the All-City team. Coach Juarez cited his coaching staff as being dedicated and knowledgeable. "I thought the season was quite successful," commented the Mustang mentor. "I'm quite proud of the way the team progressed." The 72-73 team didn't rate as good statistically as the year before, but man for man they were every bit as good.

1. End Bill Madison catches the first touchdown pass against AHS, going on to win 16-8.
2. Robert Whitaker blocks as Mike Gurule takes off on another West Mesa touchdown.
3. During the AHS game, quarterback Scott Grady gets the Big Blue Machine started with this ten yard keeper.
4. Ray Barrs receives a screen pass from Scott Grady and romps in for a touchdown against Roswell.
5. All-American Ray Barrs tries another tackle. Three plays later another Mustang touchdown is scored.

Ray Barrs

His coach called him the "greatest running back this state has seen," and Ray Barrs' statistics seem to bear Coach Juarez's statement out.

In his sophomore year Ray broke the city rushing record by gaining 1183 yards, made the All-City and All-State teams, was the All-City running back, the New Mexico running back of the year, and the Tribune Prep Player of the Year.

In his junior year Ray broke his own city record by gaining 2054 yards including 323 yards against HHS to win the District 2AAAA title. The Mustangs eventually finished as the runner up to Las Cruces Mayfield and Ray Barrs finished with 23 touchdowns, being named an All American Prep Player and getting his picture in Sports Illustrated as one of the "Faces in the Crowd."

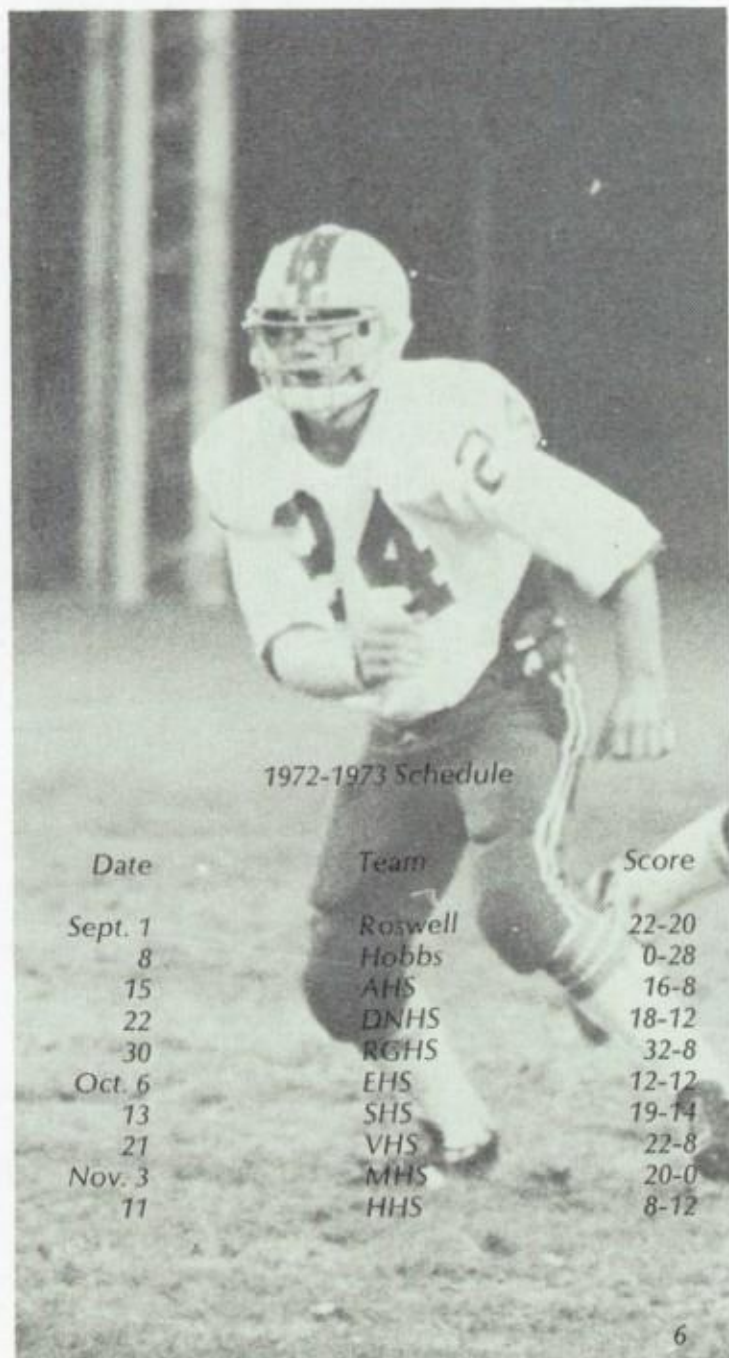

When he began his senior year Ray wasn't only a face in the crowd, he was also the biggest sports story in high school football. When local sportswriters announced the top ten Albuquerque sports stories of the year, number 10 was Ray Barrs finishing his high school football career. But that finish wasn't anywhere near what had come to be expected from Ray.

In the second game of the year at Hobbs Ray got the first of the injuries that were to plague him his senior year. As the year progressed he missed part of a couple of games and all of one. Yet when the year finished he had still managed to rack up 831 yards on the ground.

The players he ran against still respected the senior from West Mesa and voted him All-State for the third year in a row.

Then he was named the first All American Player from West Mesa on the Parade All-American Football team being named as one of the top two high school running backs in the country.

Ray finished his high school career with a total of 4068 yards. And until someone breaks his rushing records, Ray Barrs will have to be considered the greatest running back this state has ever seen.

1. Coach 'Squatty' Jaurez in the hitting position. Much of the Mustang success was due to the dedication and ability of the coaching staff. 2. 'Just keep it cool.' The confidence Coach Jimmy Jaurez shows comes from quarterback Scott Grady's ability to run the club. 3. 'What are they doing?' Coach Jim Campanella concentrates on the confusion.

Coach Pino and the B-team get it on

This year's Colts had a respectable 6-4 record. Most junior varsity teams play their sophomores with juniors. West Mesa's B-team played sophomores with an occasional freshman and won six times!

The rushing leaders were Fred Whitaker and Mundy Diaz. Fred was the "clutch" performer gobbling up yardage whenever it was needed. The team's desire to win was lead by Mundy Diaz whose determination set an example for everyone to follow. Fred Reade and Mike Ryan, small but gutsy, both led the defensive line. Two freshmen also playing on the line were Tony Urioste and Rusty Hugg. All on all this year's B-team gained a vast amount of experience.

Unblemished record proves frosh part of Mustang spirit

It would take a lot to describe the 1972 freshmen football season. The team became the only unbeaten, untied team of any kind in the history of West Mesa. The Ponies scored twice as many points as their opponents. The backfield was one of the fastest West Mesa's C-team has had. In comparison to other offensive and defensive lines they were small. The lines averaged about 140 lbs. and each player was over 5 ft. 8 inches tall. Coach Joe Torres and Coach Tim Johnson were both new to the school. They stated that their first team at West Mesa would be an unbeaten one and they were right.

1. Tailback Harold Ayres runs interference while halfback Quentin Stephens pushes for another Pony touchdown. 2. Offensive players rest on the sideline and watch the defensive team go to work on the Polk Patriots. Ponies won 20-6. 3. Quarterback Steve Jenks calls a draw play and fakes out half of the Kennedy team. Quentin Stephens finds himself able to make an additional 20 yards to help the Ponies trample the Cougars 34-6. 4. Runningback Quentin Stephens runs around the right end for a first down and an exceptionally large gain against the Kennedy Cougars.

Coach Yannoni's gang does it again! Team takes 4AAAA District Title

A cloud of dust, the thunder of hoofbeats, and the Mustangs were again the District 2AAAA Cross-Country champs. Led by Lee Roy Nelson and Ron Maestas, the Harriers upset favored Del Norte and took 4th place at the state meet.

"I'm as proud of this team," stated Head Coach Louis Yannoni, "as I was of the team that took state last year."

The Harriers started off the year by beating Valley and Sandia. They took 6th at both the Gallup Invitational and the New Mexico AAU meets before beating Eldorado and Sandia, Rio Grande and AHS in their next two meets. At the West Mesa Invitational, the Mustangs came in third, but at the next meet, District, they put it together to beat not only Del Norte but also runner-up Eldorado to earn another trip to Roswell.

1. At the district meet, West Mesa repeats as the district 4AAAA champs, as you can tell by the smiles on the men surrounding the trophy. 2. Wet and weary Thinclads finish up a successful campaign at the Del Norte Invitational. Ignacio Montoya finished third of the West Mesa cross-country men. 3. Junior Mike Lovato finishes in the top 20 over 130 boys at the Gallup Invitational. 4. Cross-country man Anthony Chavez is starting to make his move. He placed second behind team-mate Lee Roy Nelson. 5. Ronnie Maestas tries to catch up with Lee Roy Nelson just before the finish line at the West Mesa Invitational.

Senior members dominate varsity team

The Mustangs had experience on their side. It paid off in the form of 2nd place in Dist. 2AAAA with a 12-4 record and 18-6 overall. Robert Blue, David Otero and Freddie Chavez all finished the year in the top 10 scorers in the city. Bob White and Robert Whitaker rounded out the five that compiled the second best season record in the school's history, the Mustangs being ranked 4th in the State.

The team won the High Country Invit. in Durango, Colorado, while Chavez and Otero were cited as Tribune Prep Players of the Week during the year.

1. Whoa Robert ... you're leaving yourself wide open for a foul. 2. David Otero nonchalantly leaves Robert Blue and an unidentified Bulldog at the scene of the crime. 3. After catching his breath, David Otero nervously attempts a free throw. 4. Robert Blue makes a flying leap aiding in the defeat against the Del Norte Knights. 5. Freddie Chavez is infuriated by one of those pesky Hornets.

B-team never quits

Never give up. That's the rule of a good ball club and Coach Louis Yannoni's B-team never gave up. They were a respectable team being beaten badly only once by Rio Grande, 84-51.

Joe Gutierrez, setting new scoring and rebounding records for B-team, was followed closely by Paul Valencia. In Coach Yannoni's words, "Paul was the leader, always hustling, always pulling down rebounds. A promising varsity should come from the experience B-team cagers gained this year."

1. Al Pacheco, 30, out-stretches his Eldorado opponent for the ball.

Colts have 1st soph. winning season

Coach Jerry Snider's Colts didn't just have a winning season, they had the best sophomore season West Mesa's seen. The highlight of their season was romping over AHS on their home court, the first time that's been done. The tallest sophomore team in the city was led by frosh rebounder Rusty Hugg, Anthony "Hot Dog" Dew and Robert Farmer.

Coach Jerry Snider

1. There is wild confusion as Coach Jerry Snider's cagers scramble to save the ball. They won the game 28 to 20. Robert Griffith grabs for the ball while Anthony Dow and Blane Sanchez look on. 2. Astounded, an Eldorado Eagle watches as West Mesa colt Larry Mora, 15, rises up to add two more points to the score. Mora scored more than 124 points and pulled down more than 69 rebounds.

Ponies create best frosh record

Coach Pino's Ponies tied for city with 2 other teams, making them the first winning frosh BB team at WM. In the Ponies' eyes, when the important championship came up, they choked on it, but in Mustang opinion they were an outstanding team losing only once to McKinley, 35-31. When asked who his outstanding player was, Coach Pete Pino said, "They were a great team, no players barred."

All senior grapplers go to state

"We were better than anybody believed," stated Coach Tony Gallegos. "These boys are fun to coach. We had a tight, close team." The wrestling team finished 4th in both the regular season and the district 3AAAA tournament. "The highlight of our season," commented Coach Gallegos, "was qualifying all our seniors for state." The real leaders on our team were Tom Statkus, Richard Sanchez, and Ben Abeyta," pointed out Coach Gallegos, "They helped make the whole team." Statkus, Sanchez, Abeyta and Joey Montano were the four seniors on this year's squad. All other members will be returning next year.

JV grapplers take 5th in state tournament

What's it like not only to be a new coach for a JV wrestling squad, but also to coach a freshman wrestling club? According to Coach Joe Torres it's great. The squad, by record, was one of the best in the city, taking thirteen meets plus two dual meets. At the JV state tournament, Torres' wrestlers took 5th place in a field of seventeen.

As for his freshman club, they had a winning season despite their inexperience. Many of the lighter weights couldn't be filled. "The team was just plain snake bitten," Coach Torres said. The wrestling staff is hoping freshmen wrestling will become an integral part of Mustang sports.

Varsity six promotes spirit!

"We feel one sport was as important as the other, and devote an equal amount of time to each.

We would like to say thanks to all the students who not only supported us but boosted the Mustangs through another great year. We have found that Mustangs have Might, Unity, Soul, Team power, All-around greatness, Never-ending determination, Generosity in caring, and most of all Spirit."

'Colts are alllll-right' . . . Bobby Aragon

After elections the Colts began their summer practice. There were lots of exercise and stunts to learn before school started. They raised money by collecting bottles, by having bake sales, and sponsoring a swimming party.

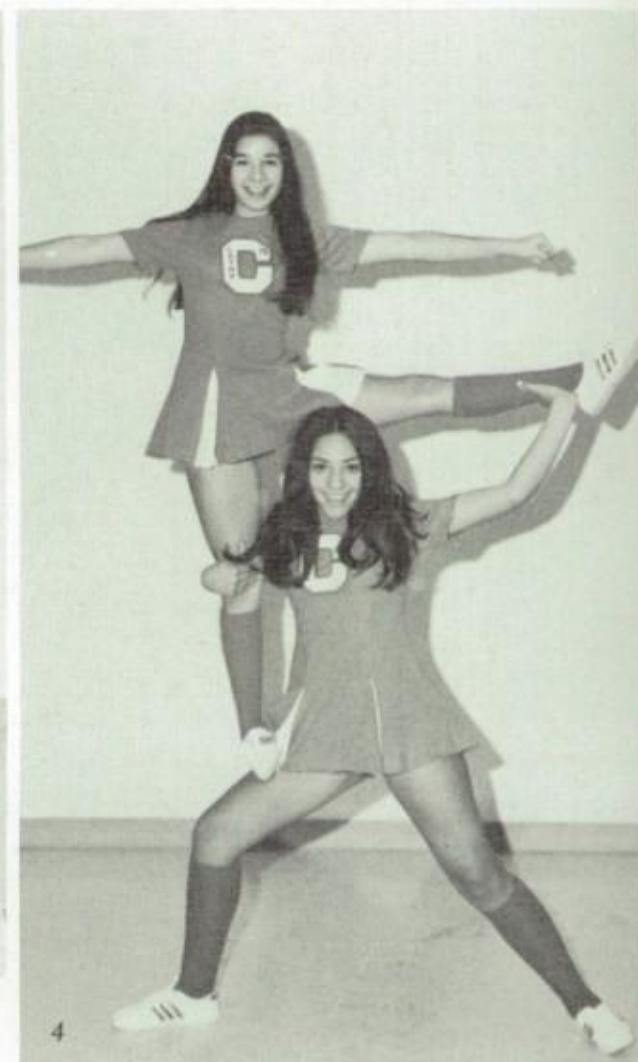

They took a three day vacation to Six Flags over Texas. Summer also meant planning assemblies, cheering at scrimmage football games, and they also attended a week long clinic with varsity in Clovis. The B-team cheerleaders boosted the Colts to a great year in sports.

'Ponies have go power' . . . Leon Medina

C-Team cheerleaders were chosen at the beginning of the year. The Ponies helped promote spirit on the field, in pep assemblies, and on the court.

They led the Pony football team to an undefeated season. They also had a very good year in basketball.

No matter where the Ponies were, inside or out, Margaret Aragon, Darcel Alter, Judy Bourguet, Sandy Dow, Doris Garcia, and Cathy Ramirez always had fun.

Office Education Association is an introduction to the Business World. Its purpose was to prepare students for the responsibility of employment. The students were introduced to office procedure in order to develop a feeling of security for responsible positions.

Each student had to be taking a business course and planning to further his career in business to become a member.

OEA sold Adriane Gifts at Christmas and participated in the Regional Convention that was held in Albuquerque at WM during March. Participants continued to the State Contest held in Roswell, and the National Contest at the Albuquerque Convention Center, May 5-7. OEA was sponsored by Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Griswold.

Staters

15 politically-minded students attend Boys', Girls' State

A sincere interest in government was a characteristic shared by the fifteen members of Staters Club. The students had to be outgoing and vitally concerned about current American problems and politics to be chosen for Girls' and Boys' State.

In June, Staters attended a week-long session sponsored by the American Legion. The sponsors this year were Mr. Souter, Mrs. Allred, and Mrs. Seidel.

'We learn from experience' . . . a member

Entering the N.M. State Fair's Dairy Judging Contest was one of the many things Future Farmers of America have participated in this year.

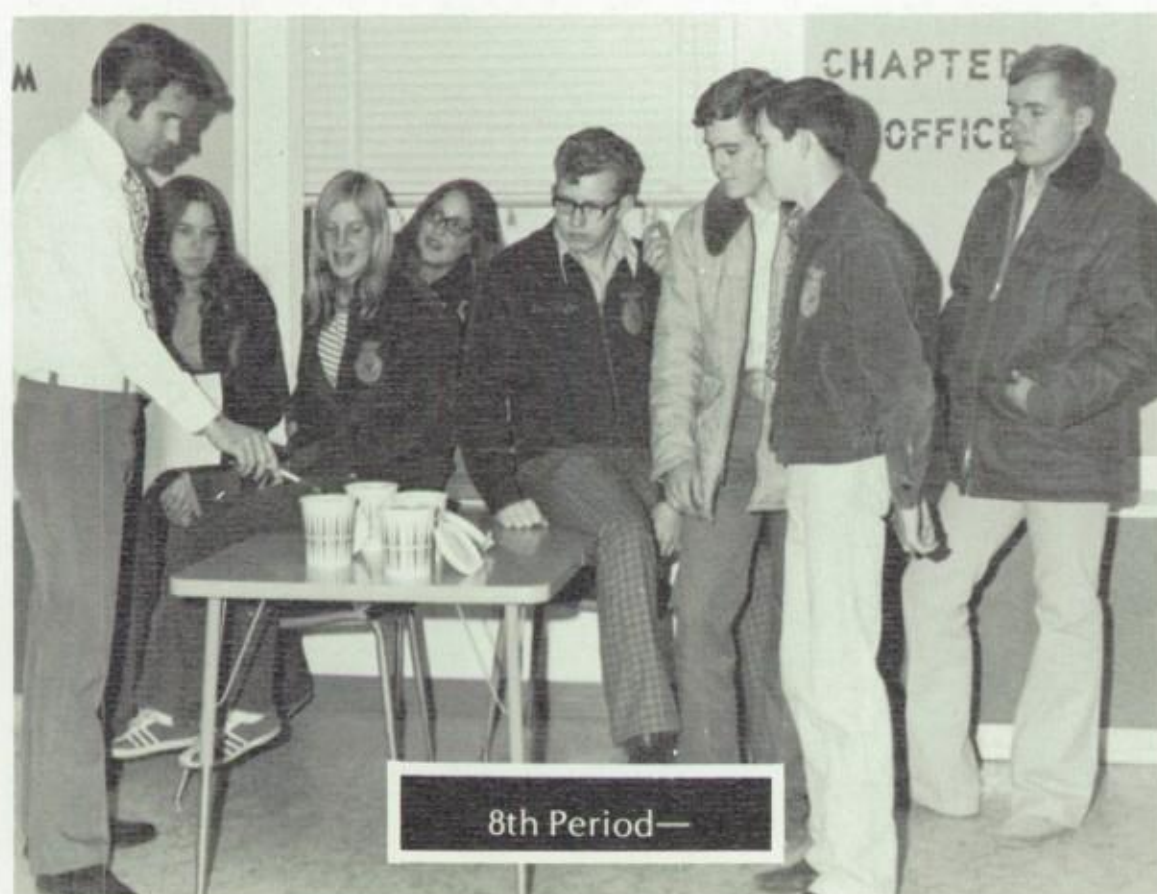

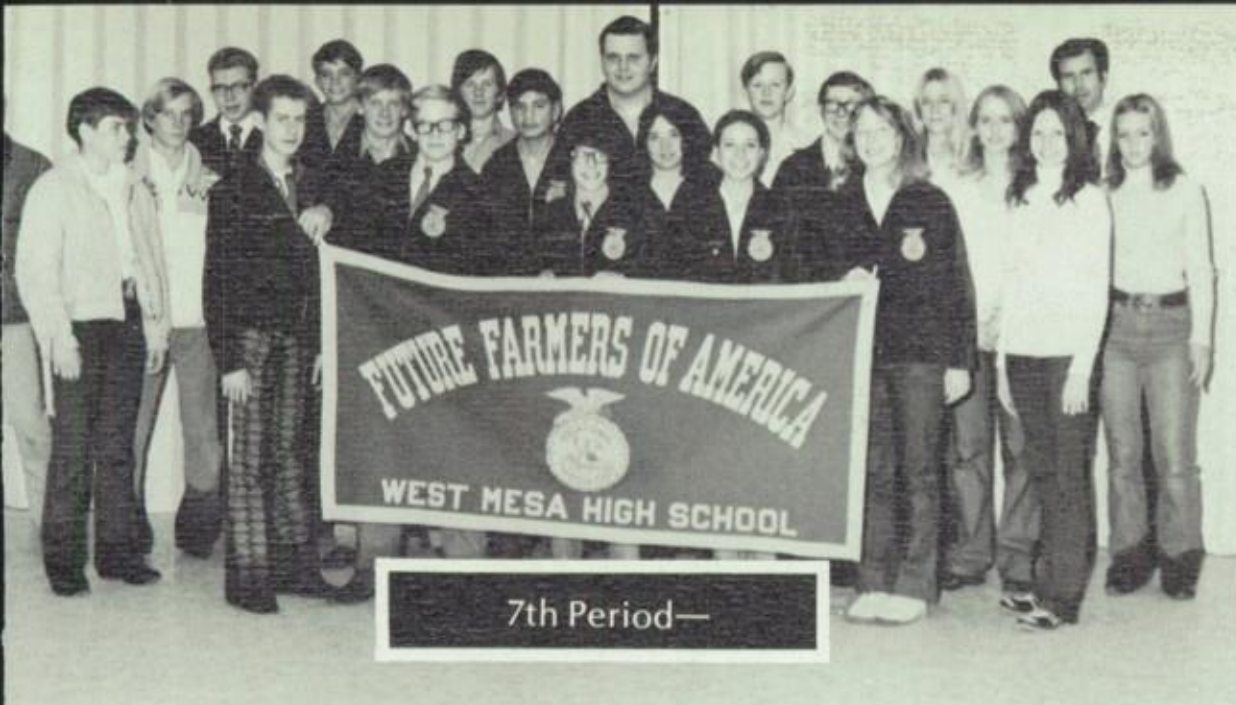

FFA has been an organized club for 2 ½ years and it now consists of 67 members. Meetings were held every 3rd Thursday of each month in the Vocational Agriculture room.

In order to become a member, a student must be enrolled in a Vocational Ag class, have supervised farming or occupational experience, meet qualifications for membership, and pay local, state and national dues.

Members competed in district and state contests in March.

'Singing is their thing' . . . Mike Garcia

According to Concert Choir members, this year was a very busy, productive one for the group. They learned a variety of new songs which gave them an extensive repertory for their various performances. Among their concerts was a folk-rock program, Easter and Christmas presentations, and a final appearance and a final dinner in May.

Paul Murray was accepted to All-State Chorus. In April the Group took part in the District VII Music Festival.

Orchestra

'We get better every year'...

Nona Koopman

The WM Orchestra was proud to learn that it was one of the largest high school orchestra in the city.

Miss Carol Mignot, orchestra director, said, "I think it's a fact worth mentioning. It means that our WM school community is really in support of our program."

Performances by the group, as well as individuals within it, were given in evening concert at WM, the District VII Solo and Ensemble Festival, the District VII Orchestra Festival, and nearby junior high schools.

In the spring, orchestra members engaged in fund-raising activities in order to finance the group's way to other cities for performances and/or festivals.

'The band plays on'...

Peggy Schultz

Besides its usual duties of playing at football games and assemblies, the WM band performed at a number of civic functions this year.

The band's performances included the Gridiron Banquet, the International Balloon Festival, the Shriners' Circus and a concert with guest soloist Bobby Shew.

A spring tour was also on the schedule for this busy group of Mustang musicians.

Tutors Club

'I learn a lot from tutoring' . . . Margaret Aragon

Helping elementary school students improve their reading, arithmetic and spelling skills was the objective of this year's Tutors' Club. Each member had his choice of school, student and subject in which he wished to work. Progress reports were given and discussed with Mr. Davis at regular meetings. Three sessions per week at the grade schools enabled each tutor to help one or two students.

Drama, Thespians

'It enhances the mind and the spirit to move freely on stage and also in life' . . . Kathy Murray . . .

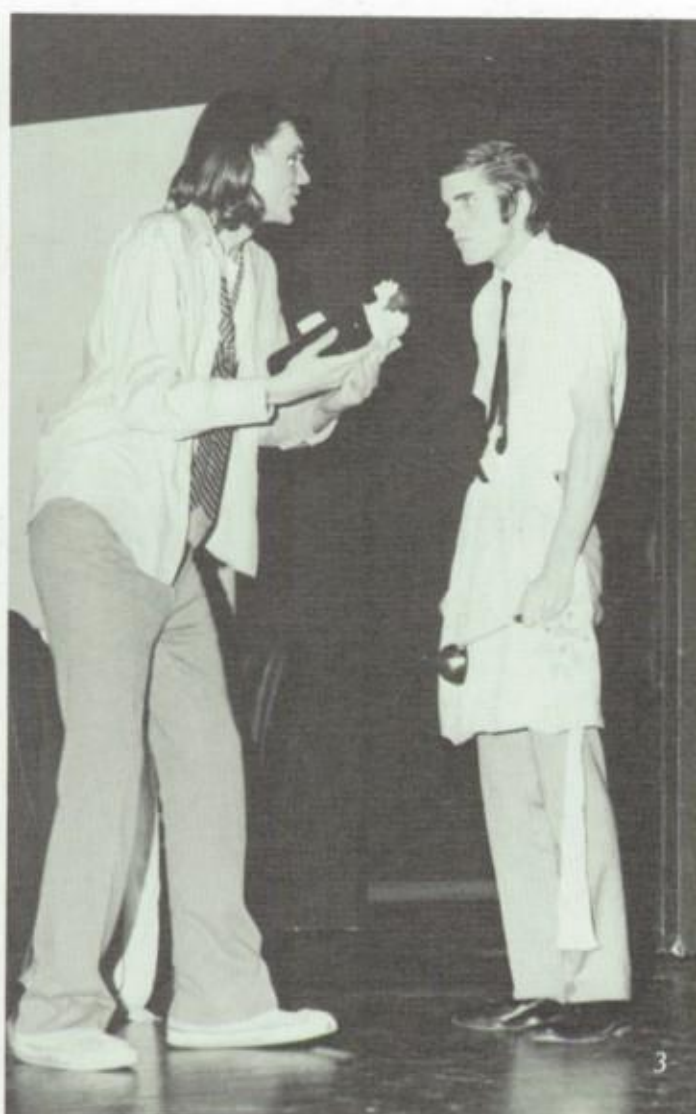

Drama Club, sponsored by Mrs. Joan Kent, produced numerous plays throughout the year. "Summertree" was first, followed by "Rhinceros." "The Odd Couple" was presented in competition at the first SW Drama Workshop at UNM.

Thespians conducted club meetings and most other activities. They had earned 10 points through participation in two major productions, either as an actor or as a backstage worker.

Students competed for four annual awards; Best Actor, Best Actress, Best Backstage Worker and Best Thespian.

1. West Mesa's Drama Club members project happy smiles while being photographed. 2. The 1972 Summertree mascot poses for the camera. 3. Lorraine Funk and Patti Hansen do a scene from Rhinoceros while Bob Lange and Jeff Boddy perform a different scene from the same play. 4. Thespians this year are Jody Doty, Jane Campbell, Ronnie Reisdorf, Patti Hansen, Jackie Dupree, Peggy Schultz and Polly Furr.

Although sixteen students were involved in the Chess Club, only seven members participated in tournaments which were played against St. Pius, Rio Grande, Eldorado, Sandia, and Boys' Academy. General chess strategy was taught to members. Mr. Octaviano Valdez was sponsor.

Amateur Film Makers Club was under the direction of Mrs. Helen Reilley and Miss Mary Steele. Members bought and processed their own film and wrote their own scripts for their productions.

National Honor Society

'A 'bunch' of brains' . . . Kelly Geer . . .

National Honor Society's main objective this past year was to raise money for scholarships. An enchilada dinner brought in $500 which made possible two $250 grants. Notebooks, paper, pencils, and other school supplies were sold to make additional money.

A 3.25 grade point average and a screening by teachers on the basis of character, service, and leadership were the requirements for membership.

'Try it; you'll like it' . . .

Diane Dow

Future Teachers of America have been practicing arranged teaching and working with teachers in other schools. They have been teaching at John Adams, Five Points, Larrazolos, Carlos Rey and Alameda. This year FTA sponsored a fruit sale, Education Week, and a project to get instruments for the South Valley Special Education Center. They attended the State convention and helped arrange programs. They held a special presentation of awards. A special scholarship was awarded at the senior awards assembly.

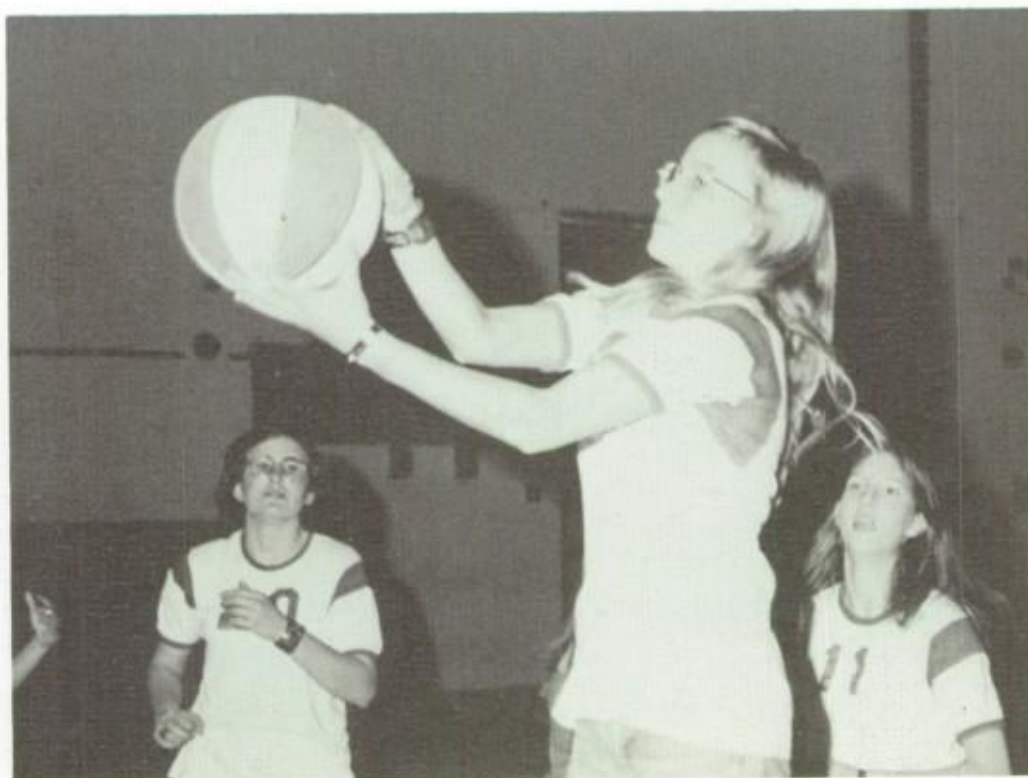

Girls Sports Club has been keeping busy with volleyball, basketball, softball, and badminton. Gymnastics is the new thing in GSC. The gymnastics team has won several of its meets and competed in the regionals.

The sponsors of GSC are Miss Gloria Vigil, Mrs. Polly Holbrook and Miss Joyce Johnson.

Speech Team

'This has to be the strangest group around!' . . .

Patti O'Brien

This year's Speech Team under the leadership of Mrs. Donna (Tiger) Krahenbuhl, the Grinch, grew and improved tremendously.

The group traveled to out of town tournaments at Taos, Los Alamos, Cortez, Portales, Phoenix, and to many in town ones.

WM's team was known around New Mexico and Colorado as the most spirited of all speech teams.

To raise money to pay for speech trips the team sponsored a dance and bake sales.

Judo-Karate Club

'Our club has the toughest guys in town' . . .

Bobby Salazar

The oldest public school judo/karate organization in the U.S. is at WMHS. It has completed its 15th year of activities by promoting Marty Aragon and Chuck Colborne to blackbelt ranking, by sponsoring a successful nationally rated tournament, and by traveling once again throughout the U.S. and Mexico. The club is affiliated with U of A so high school graduates may receive college credit.

This year north and south branches of the Karate College of the SW were established. This was the largest such group in the SW with about 200 members. Its operations centered at WM and it was directed by Mr. Sam Allred.

"Members began as white belts and worked through purple, blue, green and brown belt rankings as they attempted to earn the coveted black belt. The College has dedicated its studies and training to producing the finest karate/judo oriented black belt instructors possible, highly qualified to begin their own school and function as full or part-time professional instructors, or simply to enjoy the knowledge that they are competent in sporting and combative karate," said Mr. Allred, who holds a black belt 4th degree in karate and 3rd in judo.

雷鳥組 正式印景

1. At a surprise promotional ceremony, Chuck Colborne and Marty Aragon were awarded their blackbelt ranking. Other members of the club hoisted them on their shoulders in congratulations. 2. At the National Black Belt Karate Grand Championships, many national champions came to Albuquerque to compete and present demonstrations before an overflow spectator audience. Here, former Korean champion and #5 rated U.S. competitor demonstrates his flying kick perfection. 3. Two of the organization's brown belts practice fighting techniques full speed against one another. Robert Martinez surprises Ernie Padilla with a left side reverse kick.

Administration and Faculty

Administrators are decision-makers

Mr. Ernest Stapleton was appointed superintendent of APS in July, 1971.

A school board innovation was televised meetings to which the public phoned in questions for the board members to discuss on the air.

Mr. Robert Montoya, superintendent and his assistant, Mr. Stan Rarick, were responsible for the North Area district.

Mr. Robert Evans became principal of West Mesa in 1966 when the school opened. He and his four vice-principals helped to guide about 3600 students' through this school year.

Mrs. Mildred Faris, who has also been here since 1966, had the responsibility for curriculum and faculty. Mr. Abel McBride became the newest assistant principal this year. He was in charge of 9th grade. Mr. Armando Velasquez was in charge of 10th grade, and Mr. John Barefoot for 11th and 12th grades.

Staff helps to put it all together

Counseling, activities, nursing, library and audio-visual services provided students with much necessary aid this year.

Counselors offered assistance to students, faculty and parents. They sponsored College Night and administered individual and group tests.

Social life during the year was directed by Mr. Ken Collier. In his second year as activities director, he coordinated dances, athletic events and club meetings.

"From watching television to the actual production of a play was something new and exciting," said Drama I student Brenda Sarracino.

Drama I and II and Stage Craft, Journalism I and II, Man and Media, and Speech I and II were offered as English electives.

English teachers believe that classes should be interesting as well as practical and informative.

Stimulating courses added to Eng. Dept.

Themes in Literature, Literary Backgrounds, Environmental Literature, and College Grammar were some of the new alternate courses offered to juniors and seniors who did not choose to take English III or IV.

Ninth and tenth graders were required to take the regular English courses that emphasized reading, writing and speaking.

A select group of 11th and 12th graders combined their English and Social Studies requirements in a two period Humanities class.

1. A scene from 'The Inn of the Sixth Happiness' is enacted by Judy McCoy, Mike Trujillo, Jan Leatherwood, and Melissa Bodwell during an English III class. 2. Working on lesson plans doesn't seem to get Miss Lehman and Mrs. Barnhart down. A cup of coffee probably helps. 3. The English office is often a busy place for teachers to prepare materials for their classes, as Mrs. Yoakum and Mrs. Alarid can testify. 4. Mr. Serns selects film strips for his student to use to improve his reading skills. 5. Showing the plane he made for his Jr. Humanities class presentation on the decades is Dave Torquist.

Variety is the spice of history

Mrs. Vicki Bachechi
Mr. Russell Bessom
Mrs. Carol Blue

In an attempt to satisfy more students and make the required history classes more challenging and relevant, the Social Studies Department created several new, one semester courses this year.

Instead of U.S. history, juniors could take Men and Women in History, American Problems, Youth in American Problems, Youth in American Politics or the Psychology of Politics.

Far Eastern Cultures, Soviet Russia, Age of Revolution, and Emerging Nations were substitutes for World History.

Of course, students were still able to take U.S. or World History. Other elective courses offered included Sociology, Philosophy, Religion, Archeology, and Anthropology.

There were headaches and heartaches and times of triumph for students who took business courses.

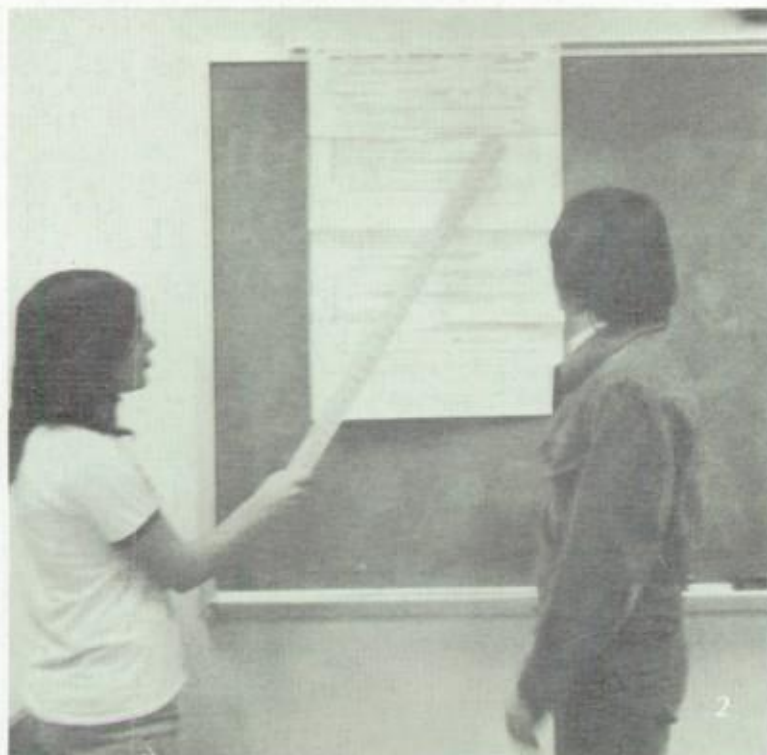

This year sophomores were permitted to take record keeping and shorthand in addition to typing. Pre-registration for these courses and the double-session made it possible to add three teachers to the department.

Seniors participated in the Secretarial Office Co-op, a course that allowed them to attend school half a day and work three or more hours each day.

New equipment included a multi-channel listening station for shorthand. This device allowed students to progress at their own speed.

Calculating students use computers at 5:30

The Mathematics Department worked to have the one credit requirement optional for any of the four years. It also set up a new grouping process for freshmen.

Mr. Trebilcock offered a computer math class. Students were allowed to use the computers at the APS office at 5:30 a.m. one day every two weeks.

Advanced classes were offered in Algebra I and II and in geometry.

The department worked on setting up new courses that would better qualify students for the work-a-day world. The classes concerning income tax and installment buying were offered for this purpose.

1. Shorthand requires hours of drill. Mrs. Scott dictates an exercise to Carol Smith, sophomore. 2. Christine Clements explains some of the intricacies of income tax returns to Bob Davidson. 3. Miss Ellis helps one of her students with his Business Math.

Science department offers varied curriculum

When the ninth graders entered West Mesa they could begin with a generalized course scanning all aspects of science.

Varied courses from Plants and Animals to Oceanography were also available to ninth and tenth graders.

Many juniors and seniors took Physics, Chemistry, or Biology II to help them meet their college and career goals.

In its diversity, this department was in reality a practice of "science methods for learning in a scientific age."

New classes, teachers in Vocational Ed.

Things have really been happening in Vocational Education. Newest additions to the curriculum were a Health Careers course, which allowed students to work in that field during the second semester, and an Industrial Coop class, directed by Mr. C. Ohler, department head.

Auto Mechanics II and Electronics II were two-hour courses, and students received two credits.

Because of the double session more than 700 people participated in 14 different courses using the shop facilities.

Mr. Craig Sprecker

Mr. David Yellot

1. Auto Mechanics II students John Apodoca, Stephen Baca, and John Tradent work dilligently on a late model car's engine. 2. Woods I instructor Mr. Goodpastor demonstrates different skills involved in this sophomore elective. 3. Sophomore Ronald Garcia works on a drawing in his drafting class. 4. Mr. Drake watches as one of his Metals I students works with one of the machines in the shop.

Plop! Wham! Squish! Ugh!

PLOP! WHAM! SQUISH! UGH! These were familiar sounds emanating from B-19. In Mr. Daniel Knight's Crafts II class, potential potters tried their luck at pinch pots, low slabs, and high slabs. But the fun didn't end in pottery! There was a variety of projects, such as sculpture block carving and jewelry making.

Mr. Knight, department head, said, "The basic fundamentals of art are taught to the students. In art classes, they are given a variety of things to do to improve their techniques."

David Prythero, student, commented, "Making pinatas was by far the best thing we did in art."

Because so many students wanted art classes, the department was enlarged from five to nine teachers this year.

Music classes perform throughout state

"OK, put more emphasis on that trumpet next time," said Mr. Winston Christian while getting ready for the band festival.

Many hours were spent by band members practicing to play for school assemblies, athletic events, concert tours and civic affairs.

"The band program has been aided greatly by the split schedule. It provides a unique opportunity for students to progress," he said.

Mrs. Berlene Casselberry was in charge of the choruses. They participated in the All-City Concert Nov. 30 and went caroling during the Christmas holidays. Student Paul Murray was chosen for the All-State Concert which was held Jan. 25.

The orchestra held several concerts throughout the year. They were instructed by Miss Carol Mignot.

1. 'To get a good polish you hold the jewelry against the rouge wheel,' Mr. Ed Gnall explains to Esther Martinez and Rowena Cruz during the afternoon crafts class. 2. 'Who has been cleaning his ears with my conductor's stick?' shouts Mr. Win Christian at the Stage Band. 3. Elvis, Englebert and Tom? No, just Paul Murray, Steve Jaramillo, Keith Sonze, Paul Gleason and Maurice Wright taking lessons from Mrs. Casselberry in chorus.

Sounds of bouncing basketballs, splishy-splashy water, and crackling, cracking bats were the noises coming from active people in physical education.

This year's freshmen were the only ones required to take physical education. Juniors, seniors, sophomores could take it as an elective. Girls physical education senior classes started something new and unusual. Mrs. Polly Hollbrook taught her girls how to use a rifle. In boys physical education, students kept in condition by weight-lifting.

1. Mr. Johnson's P.E. I freshman class plays flag football for one of their units. 2. One of the unusual things Mrs. Hollbrook is teaching her girls is to use a rifle. 3. Girls in P.E. I are learning how to swim in Miss Vigil's class. 4. Aiming to hit a can are Mrs. Hollbrook's senior girls in P.E. IV.

Students in Vocational Rehabilitation spent three hours per day in the class room and the rest of the time in a work study program.

Practice, drill keep members busy

Cadet officers assumed command under the leadership of Chief T. Mayberry and Commander T. Schneider and WM's NJROTC paraded through another year of inspection, drill and classroom instruction, marching in city parades, participating in assemblies and athletic events, being inspected by Navy officials and having a military ball were the highlights of the year.

Practice, practice, practice kept the Drill Team and Drum and Bugle Corps busy. This year the Girls' Auxiliary was an integral part of the regular program. In these three pictures one can see the discipline that made these team efforts a success.

Language program involves cultures

Hable Espanol? Sprechen Sie Deutsch?, Parlez-vous Francais?.

These common phrases are spoken by many people around school just from hearing them, but to some of the students they are phrases they have learned in class as they were learning Spanish, French, or German.

Students were taught not only to read and write and speak the language, but also to appreciate the culture of the people, according to Mrs. Lauretta Rigler, department head.

As in previous years the language lab was used by all teachers in the department.

Two years of German, three years of French, and five years of Spanish were offered.

Eight bowling teams! Are you surprised? Well, don't be. West Mesa's Bowling Club has grown to a total membership of thirty-two bowlers. Having eight teams allowed Mrs. Garriss and Mrs. Cavada, sponsors, to enter their team in the American Junior Bowling League. This meant they participated in city-wide tournaments.

An awards banquet was held at the end of the year to present trophies for such things as most improved team and highest scoring team.

Bowling? It's great

... Mrs. Cavada

FCA sponsored Roger Staubach

... Mr. Shepperson

Each summer three or four members from West Mesa's Chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes are chosen to attend the summer camp sponsored by professional FCA members. The camp is held in Estes Park, Colorado, for one week. FCA athletes such as Don Cockcroft, Tom Landry, and Steve Spurrier coach the boys in different sports and in their Christian lives. FCA's sponsor is Mr. George Shepperson.

The Modeling Club got started this year with a big boom. About 75 girls showed up for the first meeting, but the number dwindled to 40.

The girls witnessed some dancing by girls from Susanne Johnson's School of Ballet and models who demonstrated the proper way to walk, turn, sit and stand.

Several prominent speakers were the guests of the club. They included Lyn Villella, womens editor for the Tribune, and Maggie Alexander, fashion coordinator for Sears.

The sponsors, Mrs. Lyn Greene and Mrs. Amy Martinez, helped the girls stage a fashion show in the spring.

1. 2. An exciting demonstration for the Modeling Club was the recital given by Susanne Johnson's School of Ballet. In a ballet pose is Cathy Sullivan.

'Finally, the last deadline is over' . . . Norma Huling

Yearbooking meant, among other things, cropping pictures, writing copy and captions, and designing layouts. These all took time and teamwork from everyone. Staffers worked during class time and after school to meet deadlines.

At the beginning of the year, the staff attended a workshop to learn new ideas and techniques to help get together the 1973 El Chicote.

'Thoughts transferred to paper' . . .

Richard Herrera

Everyone on the staff of the Mustang World got into the act this year, putting out an issue every month.

A new addition to the paper this year, the "Buddy Bob" cartoon strip, was welcomed by students and studied by faculty members. The sport section was expanded to three pages.

Mustang World also expanded its editorial scope to national issues, including capital punishment and the Vietnam War.

23 Fillies have galloped their way through another successful year involving themselves in activities such as painting the school trash cans; helping to obtain food and money for the Christmas drive; caroling in the hospitals; performing during a political rally at the new Convention Center; and holding a State Drill Team Clinic.

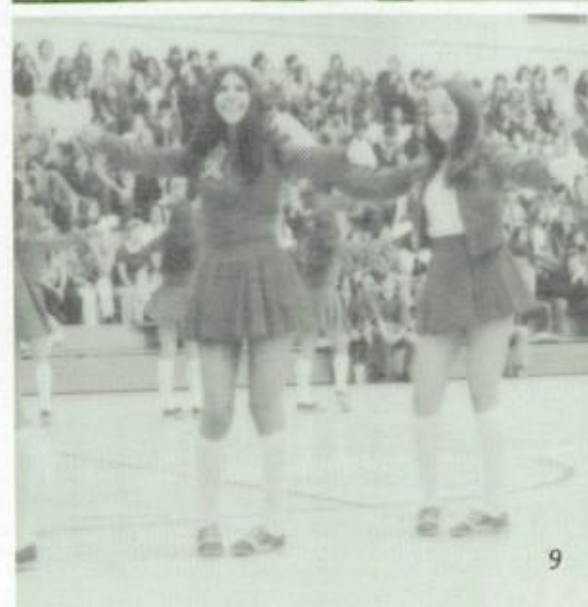

Last year West Mesa was chosen by 500 girls throughout the state as the place to hold the '73 annual State Drill Team Clinic. This involved many tedious weeks of painting, planning, and practicing. Posters, banners, name tags, programs, entertainment, trophies, meals and competition composed the two days of clinic. The enthusiasm, cooperation and patience that many girls put into this project brought pride and recognition not only to the Fillies but also to West Mesa.

Two AFS students become Mustangs; Cuellar leads SC

This year West Mesa had two foreign exchange students. Harry Polotagluv from Greece and Franz Sjoberg from Finland. Both students participated in several clubs and were escorts at homecoming.

Student Council's main project this year was staging the homecoming extravaganza. In order to raise money they sold Valentograms and candy.

Mr. Sterba

The custodial staff was cut this year to three day men because APS decided to try a professional maintenance service. This seemed necessary because of the split-session which left so little time for the necessary up-keep of the buildings. Mr. Mora and Mr. Gallegos were responsible for the daily inside work while Mr. Sterba maintained the grounds.

Keith

I finally made it. Maybe next year, huh.
Are you going to me a senior picture.
Good luck & God

Keith,
I think you're a really neat guy, and I'm sorry we ended up now even being friends. You're a great guy, and I wish you the best of everything always. Anytime you need anything
I'll be there. Remember you've got a

Keith,
 I had a really good time in English this year. If some was really fun, even if some of the "chops" were pretty a bad. Hope you have a nice summer. Stay
 Cool. See you next year.

Really cool & great guy (wether he wants to be!) I just sorta met you this year, didn't get to know you really well, like I wanted to. But there's always next year, "Maybe" you really "something else." I want to wish you the best of luck, and happiness always! You deserve it. (Sometimes)

Keith, I had you couldn't stay it out through the whole year in feelings. I had to sleep by myself
